Eligibility :

Open to all artists and craftspeople interested in showing and selling their work. All artwork must be original and presented by the artist(s) making the application. Application due by February 5, 2018

ARTS@theOVAL is juried to assure the quality and variety of artwork displayed. Organizers reserve the right to limit the number of entries in each category to assure balance of art offered for sale. Booth space may be shared by two artists when both participants are accepted through the juried process.

Application and Fees:

- Entry fee: $75 per exhibition booth.
- Electricity available for an additional $10.
- Acceptance based on juried selections.
- Submit the attached form along with four good quality photos representative of the artwork to be exhibited. Digital photos may be submitted on CD in .jpg format or emailed to Lauren.Deal@cityofroseville.com. Please submit a variety of samples of your current work that will be sold or showcased at the event.
- Inform us of the average price point of merchandise.
- Include check in the appropriate amount, payable to Roseville Parks & Recreation, and a self-addressed envelope with sufficient postage for return of your photos/CD.
- Please feel free to provide us with any other details of your displays, artwork, or other helpful information for the juried process.
- Artists sharing one exhibition space must submit photos representative of each of their work and an entry form for each artist. Joint entries must be submitted in one package with one check. Acceptance of one artist in a shared space does not guarantee the acceptance of both.
- Entry fee will not be returned in the case of withdrawals made after March 1, 2018 or no shows.
